KLOTZ DIGITAL ANNOUNCES KEY PERSONAL CHANGES IN ITS ASIA PACIFIC SUBSIDIARIES

Sydney, January 2008 – KLOTZ DIGITAL today announced two promotions within its Australian subsidiary. Patrick Salloch has been promoted to General Manager of KLOTZ DIGITAL Asia Pacific. Salloch, who has managed KLOTZ DIGITAL's Australia office since 2006, will take over the position from outgoing incumbent Thomas Marcher, who has left the company due to personal reasons. Salloch's promotion is effective as of the 1st of January 2008, and was announced today by Thomas Klotz, CEO of KLOTZ DIGITAL AG, to whom Salloch reports. "In view of the continually positive sales developments and the track record of success he demonstrated in Australia during the last year, Patrick is the worthy and ideal successor to lead both of our offices in the Asia Pacific region", says Klotz. "He is well prepared and will take the right action to manage a smooth transition to this new situation while continuing our successful business in Asia."

New Technical Director Keith Prestidge

Salloch's promotion is accompanied by further personnel changes. Also effective immediately Keith Prestidge will overlook and manage all engineering resources as Technical Director Asia Pacific. Prestidge has been with KLOTZ DIGITAL since 2001. Since then he has been involved in all large broadcast and PA projects throughout the entire region and brings a wealth of knowledge and experience within KLOTZ DIGITAL's product range to his new position. Salloch says "Keith is a seasoned professional who has proven his engineering expertise and project management experience time and time again. I had the pleasure of working with Keith since 2006 and I couldn't think of anyone more capable to lead our engineering departments in both offices."

Klotz adds, "These appointments underline the importance we attach to continuing to develop the enormous potential of our products in the vast Asia Pacific PA and Broadcast markets. We are delighted that these proven and well-deserving members of the KLOTZ DIGITAL team will devote their energy towards the opportunities in the entire Asia Pacific region now.”
